

ALL TALKS OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Second Language Studies Symposium

Friday, February 24, 2017
B342 Wells Halls

Sponsored By

SECOND LANGUAGE
STUDIES PH.D.
PROGRAM
<http://sls.msu.edu>

With Additional Support From

CENTER FOR LANGUAGE
TEACHING ADVANCEMENT
<http://celta.msu.edu>

TESOL PROGRAM
Department of Linguistics &
Germanic, Slavic, Asian, & African Languages
<http://linglang.msu.edu/tesol>

ENGLISH LANGUAGE
CENTER
<http://elc.msu.edu/>

9:30-10:00am Welcome and Coffee

10:00-11:00am Keynote speaker

Using mixed methods to explore writing processes and their links to text quality
Andrea Révész, University College London

11:00-11:15am Break

11:15-11:45am Jungmin Lim: What could explain the inconsistency between raters? Investigation on textual features of discrepantly scored essays

11:45am-12:15pm Jie Liu: The L2 acquisition of Chinese classifiers: An eye-tracking study

12:15-1:15pm Lunch Break

1:15-1:45pm Jessica Fox: The role of mood and self-reported anxiety in vocabulary learning

1:45-2:15pm Hima Rawal and Irina Zaykovskaya: Study abroad as an ideological battlefield: Shifts in learner beliefs and attitudes in a SA context

2:15-2:30pm Break

2:30-3:30pm Keynote speaker

Rethinking peer interaction: Insights on language learning among refugee-background students
Martha Bigelow, University of Minnesota