

ALL TALKS OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Second Language Studies Symposium

Friday, February 23, 2018
B342 Wells Halls

Sponsored By

SECOND LANGUAGE
STUDIES
PH.D. PROGRAM
<http://sls.msu.edu>

With Additional Support From

CENTER FOR LANGUAGE
TEACHING ADVANCEMENT
<http://celta.msu.edu>

TESOL PROGRAM
Department of Linguistics &
Germanic, Slavic, Asian, &
African Languages
<http://linglang.msu.edu/tesol>

ENGLISH LANGUAGE
CENTER
<http://elc.msu.edu/>

9:30-10:00am Welcome and Coffee

10:00-11:00am Keynote speaker

Second language comprehensibility: More than meets the ear

Pavel Trofimovich, Concordia University

11:00-11:15am Break

11:15-11:45am Natalya Koval: Testing the deficient processing account of the spacing effect in L2 vocabulary learning: Evidence from eye-tracking

11:45am-12:15pm Dmitrii Pastushenkov: L1 background and peer familiarity as factors in ESL group interaction

12:15-1:15pm Lunch Break

1:15-1:45pm Irina Zaykovskaya: Language ideologies and attitudes towards vernacular usages of LIKE among native and nonnative speakers on a US university campus

1:45-2:15pm Jeffrey Maloney: 'I felt uncomfortable at the very beginning...but now I am fine': Fulbright FLTA CALL knowledge and beliefs development

2:15-2:30pm Break

2:30-3:30pm Keynote speaker

Throwing verbal rocks at these mediocrities:
A case for play in advanced academic writing
Christine Tardy, University of Arizona